

The Scripture Is God's Symphony

Sunday Musical Service, 9th April 2023

Pastor O. Kamwatti

MATTHEW 11:16-17

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

Psalm 149:1-3

1 Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

<sup>2</sup> Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

168 Now to you adults, the

Scripture is

God's Symphony. Yes.

Hallelujah!

Only the Composer knows what it really means and He reveals it to those who are listening, who are interested in knowing what the drama is.

But you'd have to know about a symphony first, see. It's not just something you see, it's
the—the changing, the junctions
of the Word, of the music.

It throws; sometime it's going this way for a while, a certain beat, after a while it changes all around. What is it?

To you who wouldn't understand It or don't know nothing about It, not interested in It, it's just a racket, it's a fuss. But to those who know about It, they're watching for It, they know It's coming.
Hallelujah!

169 So we have these times of Symphonies, of the Symphony of God's Word, that the whole drama changes.

You who are interested, listen for that change. You know it's getting close. You hear the way the drums are beating, amen, want something to happen.

You know this is a change, see, it's going to break out into a burst in a few minutes. See? And you're watching for it, you can tell the way the drums are timing. O God!

If you can hear the drums of the<sup>16</sup> finish now, if you can hear the echo of the music of the Heavenly Word singing Itself
out, “And it shall come to pass
in the last days!” The Symphony of God’s great drama that He’s playing,

It changes Him, His Symphony at the junction. The composer and those who are interested, listen for the change. That's what all this stuff is to us, we're listening, we're watching.

Every time He appears,
something happens, we see the time getting close. We see back yonder not long ago when that Church Ages was being drawed
out, we were listening.

We seen it was right with the Word, beating with the Word. After a while, what happened? Here He come, Himself, and vindicated it.

Isaiah 28:7-13

<sup>7</sup> But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

<sup>8</sup> For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

<sup>9</sup> Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine?
them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

<sup>10</sup> For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept;
line upon line, line upon line;
here a little, and there a little:

<sup>11</sup> For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

<sup>12</sup> To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

<sup>13</sup> But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

83 And—and then, in there, get training in your own groups,
other ministers, men that you see that has a calling in their life, for the ministry.

Train them young men.
Bring them in here to the elder. All of you set together in a ministerial meeting, and there teach the deeper things of God.....
