

Remembering The Lord

Holy Communion, 31st December 2024

Bro. James Menni

1 Corinthians 11:23-25

²³ For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

²⁴ And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

²⁵ After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, this cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

1 Corinthians 11:23-25

²³ For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, this cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

63-0122 — Remembering The Lord

40 Now, we know that His table, where the people set together and commune with Him, is like an oasis in a desert. And an oasis, in the desert, where there's a great spring, where weary travelers come and set around this oasis in the desert, and—and refresh themselves, and then remembering how it got there.

41 And that's the way it is in the Church, that, this table of communion where all the blessings of God, the full Gospel, everything that God has for His Church, is brought out, laid out among us. And it's like an—an oasis in this hot, burning, sinful desert that we're traveling through.

And then when we come in,
and talk of, read the menu, and then we see that He turns back around, and He's not fresh out of this, or fresh out of that, or this struck off, but He's the same yesterday, today, and forever. He's got everything on the menu, ready to give it out. That's the good part.

Then we can just look over the menu and just take the whole thing. I just like to, I like the complete course, don't you? I just like to take it.

42 And while we are enjoying these blessings, each one feeling His Presence, and saying, “Amen. Praise God!

Hallelujah!” so forth, in that we can remember the One that brought it to us and made it possible, the death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Remember Him.

I think that's what, many times, that maybe we enjoy so many blessings, that we forget just where they come from.

The Lord

45 And that, you know, we, I think it pays us to stop and look up, see where these things are coming from.

Oh, how glorious it is to remember our Lord, remember what all He did for us, and remember that there was no one else could make this possible.

There is nothing could make it possible but our Lord. And He so freely did it, when there was no worthy person;

there was no prophet,
there was no sage, no potentate, no monarch, no king. No one could do it but the Lord Jesus, Himself, and He so willingly did it for us. Let's just remember.

He's done it for His children down through the age.

63-0728 — Christ Is The Mystery Of God Revealed

372 Where once, partly, Moses had Him; partly, David had Him; oh, my, but here He is manifested in the fullness,

Deity Himself standing on earth. God, in His fullness, to die for the sin of the people, that He might bring to His Church a sanctified Life;

that He might have the preeminence, in fullness, in His Church, to manifest every promise in these last days, that He promised for the last days. See? What was...

60-0522E — Adoption #4

75 Look, “has predestinated us unto this inheritance.” If

I’m a right inheritance of something, if God is knocking at my heart and saying,

“William Branham, I called you a long time ago, before the foundation of the world, to preach the Gospel,”

I have an inheritance, an inheritance of Eternal Life.
Now, God sent Jesus to make that inheritance real to me, because there was nothing I could do to—to inherit it.

It was blank, it was valid, there's nothing I could do.
But in the fulness of time God sent, in His Own good time, Jesus the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world.

His Blood was shed that I might go to my inheritance.
To be what? What inheritance? The sonship, to be a son of God.
